MEXICANS ARE INTERESTED

HOME-BRED STABLES TO COMPETE WITH AMERICAN RACERS AT JUAREZ.

Arrangement Made With Mexican Government by Which Geldings for Racing Purposes Will Be Admitted Duty-Free Hereafter,

Louisville, Ky., July 25.—A letter from El Paso, Tex., states that Alexandro de la Arena, a Mexican millionaire, will ship a pretentious racing stable for next winter's meeting at Juarez, and hopes to make a good showing there racing against the cracks of the American-owned strings with his home-bred stock. The colits and fillies that the president of the Mexican Jockey Club will principally send to the post are the produce of mares in foal bought for this wealthy foreigner by L. Blum in Kentucky several years ago. Some of them are now three-year-olds, but the bulk are two-year-olds and of the latter the most is expected, as there are said to be some promising youngsters in the collection.

It seems that horsemen going from the United States to Juarez this year will not encounter the trouble they had with geldings in getting over the border line last season. An arrangement has been made with the government of Mexico by which geldings for racing purposes will be allowed to enter Mexico without duty.

All the improvements around and on the grounds of the Juarez track are progressing well. Four hundred additional stalls are in course of construction which with the 600 already constructed, will provide accommodations for 1,000 horses. The contracts on all the improvements call for their completion by November 1 and this will be easily accomplished, judging by the progress now being made in the work. As soon as the Empire City meeting winds up Secretary Lyman II. Davis will begin the compiling of the conditions of the numerous stakes to be run at Juarez, a considerable task in itself, as there will be forty or more of them this season. It is probable that the date of the closing of these events will be about the middle of October and during the progress of the fall meeting at Churchill Downs. As soon as the Empire City meeting winds up Secretary Davis will go at once to Mexico in order to have a month on the ground-preparing for a gala opiening of Thanksgiving Day.

Hersemen are much elated over the prospects of bei

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE MIDSUMMER STAKES

"A short horse is soon curried," and the story of the running of the Midsummer Stakes does not call for much telling. The Empire City Racing Association is of quite recent establishment and necessarily its closed events have been run but few times. It will be run for the third time this afternoon and its record is as follows:

RACING GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY.

RACING GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., July 25.—Will J. Shelley, clerk of the course and associate judge at Churchill Downs, was in consultation Saturday with Secretary Newman of the State Fair in regard to the program of running races to be given at Douglas Park this year, and the conditions of these events will shortly be announced. It is likely that, as last season, two running races will be on the card each day and that one of the events will be for gentlemen riders, modeled after the Gentlemen's Cup Trophy annually hung up at the spring meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club. Mr. Shelley favors adding to the purse in this race a handsome lowing cup to be donated to the winning rider. He had only three starters in this event last season, but he hopes the coming fall to get together a field of half a dozen horses.

Among the horses W. A. Kirwan took to Missouri from Latonia and turned out for a rest at Barney Schreiber's Woodlands Farm were Charles Fox, Iwalani and Donovan. Mr. Kirwan will bring a siring of the Schreiber horses to Churchill Downs for the coming fall meeting. At present all hands at Woodlands Farm are engaged in breaking the yearlings, of which there are upward of eighty head. Mr. Schreiber also has some yearlings at the farm he has under lease in California. He told trainer Carroll B. Reid at Latonia that he now owns 600 head of thoroughbred horses which probably exceeds the holdings of any other owner of thoroughbreds in the world.

Trainer Wayne Lewis expects to go to Lexington to look over some of the yearlings, all fillies, and prepare to ship them to look over some for the yearlings will be has advised Mr. Bissell to buy not over three or four good colts, as with the seven old horses on hand the string will be sufficiently large with the addition of seven or eight yearlings. All of trainer Lewis' horses at the track are enjoying their rest, the two-year-olds especially being greatly benefited, They were all replated a few days ago and are getting slow work again. ## JOHN GRIFFIN II. RESCUED FROM OBLIVION.

Detroit, Mich., July 25.—After the recent record-breaking victory of John Griffin II. at Windsor owner D. C. Cottle-bugged and kissed the old horse, and Griffin sunggled up to him and whinnied in response to the caresses. John Griffin II. is one of the sensational horses of the year. At eight years of age he came from the bushes, and has about a dozen victories to his credit within the past seven or eight months, besides being second and third many times. His history is a curious one, and it was only because of his merit as a race horse that his pedigree was eventually established after much research and the horse registered for recognized racing. His present owner found, the horse drawing a buggy for a minister in Texas and, knowing him to be a thoroughbred, offered to train him. The minister refused, but offered to set the horse for $150. He changed owners and became famous as the "Texas wonder."

NO DECISION IN THE EAST

QUESTION OF CONTINUANCE OF RACING AFTER AUGUST REMAINS UNSETTLED.

I. A. Bennet's Good Filly, Schoolmarm, Shows Return te Her Smart Two-Year-Old Form in Winning the Knickerbocker Handicap.

New York, July 25.—Schoolmarm, J. A. Bennet's good filly, showed a return to her two-year-old form at Yonkers this afternoon when she beat a band of fast sprinters in the three-quarter mile dash of the Knickerbocker Handicap. She had been racing well of late, but the sprinting distance was not considered to her advantage in such company, and she was one of the long shots at post time. Mexoana, recently injured in a race by being crowded against the fence, was an added starter, and the early pacemaker, Follie Levy, which had been left at the post in her recent starts, after being off badly, raced through her field to the head of the stretch where she had a lead of two lengths. She looked a sure winner at the furlong post, but Schoolmarm got up under a long and hard drive to win in the last stride. Cherryola, ridden by Shilling, was third.

The brief history of the Knickerbocker Handicap amateurs will be ready to keep interest in the sport alive.

Jockey Archibald, after riding Tay Pay in the first race, was overcome by the heat and had to cancel his subsequent engagements.

Starter William Murray is here from Latonia and has signified his intention of taking a holiday until fall.

TURF TROUBLES IN MARYLAND.

Building of New Track at Marlboro Likely to Pre cipitate a Conflict with Old Established Pimlico.

cipitate a Conflict with Old Established Pimlico.

New York: July 25.—Unless a truce is patched up Marland may be the seene of a bitter turf war between Pimlico and a new race track now under construction in Prince George County, to be called New Marlboro Park. The promoters of this new venture have organized under the name of the Southern Maryland Racing Association, with Arthur N. Elrod general manager, and with the sanction of the Southern Jockey Club a twenty-days meeting will be inaugurated September 26, New Marlboro Park is forty minutes ride from Washington and fifty minutes from Baltimore. It is a mile in circumference, with upto-date appointments and conveniences.

In breaking into the state of Maryland, where bookmaking is legal and racing at a single track is limited to forty days a year, the New Marlboro promoters have not consulted Pimlico. Neither, layer they shown a desire to receive a sanction from the Jockey Club, which has always controlled the Pimlico meeting. But the promoters have turned to the Southern Jockey Club for its sanction and have shown much independence in applying for a state license, which will be forthcoming. The Southern Jockey Club, so-called, was formed last winter and is composed of the Jacksonville and Tampa tracks. It is inferred therefore that some of the me who promoted winter racing in Florida are interested in the Maryland venture, which will not receive the official approval of the Jockey Club, That means the proposed meeting at New Marlboro Park will be an ontiaw affair and will cause much friction with the Pimlico managers, who realize that their monopoly of racing in Maryland is about to be challeiged.

Last year reformers tried to have anti-race track legislation passed in Maryland, but the project was defeated in its inciplent stages because it was shown that there were only thirty days of racing at Pimlico each year. But with the springing up of this new track, built and controlled by professionals, will come serious trouble, it is predicted. Pimlico will have

Among the early arrivals at Butte was R. Allen, who recently shipped a number of youngst from his Nebraska farm to add to the string raced at Oakland.

Colonial Girl, winner of the World's Fair Handi cap at St. Louis, and in foal to Yankee, has beer shipped from Kentucky to Joseph E. Widener's es tablishment at Elkton, Pa.

William Walker offered John E. Madden $1,000 for Beatrice several days ago. The Kentucky turfman refused to sell the brown daughter of Migraine and Lady Schotr for the figure named.

Charles W. Moore, of Mere Hill Stud, has purchased the weanling bay colt by McGee, out of Callfornia (dam of Hadur, Anne McGee, Calypte, etc.), by Midlothian, from George J. Stoll. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., will race a big string of two-year-olds, mostly the get of Mexican, at Sara-toga. Frank Keogh has been engaged by Mr. Hitch-cock to ride his horses during the meeting at the Springs.

The horses on the New York tracks are enjoying exceptional health. There has not been an acute case of sickness, according to the veterinarian, since the horses in the Keene string recovered from various ailments.

John Miller has arrived at Sheepshead Bay fron Lexhigton with twelve yearlings, the property of H. K. Knapp, Francis T. Hitcheock and William L. Powers, The Knapp and Hitcheock juveniles will be broken and trained by William H. Karrick at the Bay.

Hay.

Trainer Charlie Casey, who developed and successfully trained the French mare Gluette, besides many other good performers on eastern and western tracks has gone east for the Saratoga meeting. He handler a division of Barney Schreiber's stable at Oáklandast winter

Thomas Newton, owner of Busy Miss, who claimed Joseph A. Jones' Hectagon at Yonkers Saturday for $960, refused $1,500 for the colt a few moments after the youngster became his property. Hectagon had worked well in heavy going, and is expected to show his best performances over deep tracks. Mr. Newton, who is a resident of Greenwich, Conn., takes a decided interest in racing.
